BETHEL LADIES SOCIETY, 1893–1918, FREEDOM TOWNSHIP, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

"Mrs Haver Baur, Bridgewater, Mich" is inscribed on a copy of a small ledger titled The Handy Cash Book in the GSWC library.[1] The booklet includes an 1893 calendar and advertisements on alternate pages for Paine's Celery Compound, "Far Superior to an Ordinary Sarsaparilla or Bitters," and a remedy for many ailments.

In this volume Mrs. Baur recorded where the Bethel Ladies Society met for twenty-five years. The Bethel Ladies Society formed in 1893 in the Evangelical German Bethel Congregation on Bethel Church Road, just east of Schneider, Freedom Township, Washtenaw County. The church organized under the leadership of Reverend Friedrich Schmid in 1840.[2] Until 1909, when the Ladies Society did not meet at a member's home, they gathered at a schoolhouse. After that year, the basement of their new church became their extra meeting place.

Katherine Armbrust, or Armbruster, was born in Michigan in 1850 and married Xaver Bauer in Bridgewater in 1870.[3] [4] Mrs. Baur enters her name and that of her husband in multiple ways: Mrs Haver Baur, Xavier Baur, Xover Baur and X Baur. Her spelling of member names is also inconsistent. Her notes are transcribed as written.

In 1910 when she and her husband were enumerated on Macomb Street in Manchester, they had been married forty years; four daughters, of six children, survived.[5] By 1920 her husband lived with their oldest daughter and her family as a widower.[6]

REV. FRIEDRICH SCHMID'S FAMILY REGISTER 1833, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN
(part one)

Translated & transcribed by John H. Schmale and Rob Steward, 1986

The original Family Register of Rev. Friedrich Schmid is in the Zion Ev. Lutheran Records currently housed and may be accessed in The Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Please note that the handwriting of Rev. Schmid is not easily deciphered, in part due to his penmanship. The records contain entries written in old German script and some using English script. In addition, the pages in his records are not numbered. The register contains entries for 61 families. It should also be noted that the register is not inclusive of all the families that attended at that time, nor was the information always kept up to date. We have maintained the spelling Rev. Schmid used in the case of names and places. Items enclosed in parentheses are usually comments or notes of the translators or indicate alternate spellings or information.

Rev. Schmid's Family Register Entries are in a two page, column format. The entries are primarily, but not always, in alphabetical order by first letter of the last name (i.e. "H" families are listed before "G" families). We have left them in the order that they appear in the register. Entries at the top of each left page begin with the information for the head of the household and his spouse in five columns, while the middle of the page includes name and place information for their parents. Entries on the right page list the children and their information in five columns.

In order to provide clarity and continuity, the families have been numbered and the parts lettered so that "a." refers to the "father's" information and his parents; "b." is the marriage date and the "mother's" information and her parents; and "c." lists their children and their information (if given). Also the information has been rearranged slightly as follows:

Family #: a. "House Father" Birth: Day, Month, Year, with Place, District, Kingdom; Name: First, Middle, Last; Father of House Father - Name: First, Middle, Last; Location if given; Mother of House Father - Name: First, Middle, Last; Location if given;
b. Marriage; "House Mother" Name: First, Middle, Last; her Birth: Day, Month, Year, with Place, District, Kingdom; Father of House Mother - Name: First, Middle, Last; Location if given; Mother of House Mother - Name: First, Middle, Last; Location if given;
c. Children:
1. Name: First, Middle, (Last); Birth: Day, Month, Year; Confirmation date; Marriage date; Death date;

Columns with no entry are indicated by three hyphens (---); and the end of each column entry is indicated with a semi colon (;).

The Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County, Michigan, Inc. 5 April 2011
To Accompany Family History Capers Vol. 34, No. 3

GSWC Meetings are held at 1:30 pm at the Education Center Auditorium, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Campus, 5305 Elliott Drive, Ypsilanti, Michigan, usually the fourth Sunday of the month.

Upcoming Speakers and Classes for Spring 2011
April 17, 2011 (NOTE- Third Sunday!)
Program: "Civil War"(Joint Meeting with Washtenaw County Historical Society). Tom Collier

Class: "Photo Identification" A panel will present photographs. Your participation is welcome to identify the "who" or "where" of these pictures.

May 22, 2011 "Basic Scandinavian Research" Diana Crisman Smith. Scandinavian research need not be difficult if you learn a few basics – patronymics, handwriting, special records in each country and genealogical vocabulary, for example. Learning to take advantage of these specialties, finding resources, and tracking down aids to research will make it easier.

Class: Beyond the Death Record: Making Them Real. Gary M. Smith. Are you an ancestor collector? Do you collect names and dates? Or do you actually put "meat on the bones"? Go beyond the vital records and learn who they were as people! This presentation will discuss why and how with examples of some sources you may not have thought about using.

Report of Winter 2010 Programs:
January 23, 2011 Program: "City Slickers: Finding Your Urban Ancestors." Barbara Snow has included information on her website: www.barbsnow.net. Look under Bobbie's Genealogy Classroom. The two areas are "City and County Directories" under "The Records" column, and "Urban Ancestors" under the "Research Advice Column".
City Directories include addresses, occupation, sometimes spouses, and older children in the household. If you are very lucky you may also find a "moved to", or "widow of" reference. Be sure to look at the abbreviation guides, usually located in the front of the book. There are online guides to help you with analyzing city directory information, and place to assist in finding a city directory for a specific place. Ancestry, googlebooks and Heritage Quest, are all places where specific directories can be found. Another place is www.olddirectorysearch.com/ .

Class: "Celebration of Family History." This was a DVD from the National Genealogical Society meeting in Salt Lake City, October, 2010, with inspiring songs and stories from the conference. David McCullough's speech is next on the DVD. See Marcia McCrary if you'd like to borrow the DVD to view the speech.

February 27, 2011
Program: "Native American Lore of the Detroit Area, 1701 – 1842." David Irwin provided us with an overview of Native American history, beginning with the French arriving in 1701. The tribes were: Chippewa (Ojibwa), Ottawa, and Potawatomi, and Iroquois.
One of the main questions is what happened to the Native Americans of Southeast Michigan? The Whites wanted nice land, the Potawatomi were forced out of the area (to Kansas and Oklahoma) while some of them moved to Walpole Island, the Chippewa moved north to Saginaw and other areas, the Ottawas went to Traverse City, and participated in lumbering operations. If you have French Canadian ancestry, there is a good chance you also have Native American blood. The Native American Haplogroups are I or X.
Sources: Dawes Rolls, some census records, although the early Canadian census are problems. The Bureau of Indian Affairs, and the First Natives of Canada (Ottawa) are other places to find information. David Irwin's website: www.yourancestralfamily.com/ includes his blog.

Class: "There are No Dumb Questions in Genealogy." We covered several questions from the audience. Bobbie Snow showed some ways to find books, by using "Find in a library". The new website for the LDS church is fhc.familysearch.org. You will soon be able to order films online, to be sent to your nearest Family History Center.

March 27, 2011
Program: "It's a Needle in a Haystack: Slave Research." Dr. Deborah Abbott gave a very interesting introduction to finding ancestors who were slaves. It is important to understand the history surrounding the time. Creating a timeline is helpful. There is interesting information at www.BlackPast.org. Do your homework! Check the census, make comparisons from year to year, read all the way to the end of the page, and the pages before and after. Look at given names, there may be unnoticed connections. Use collateral and cluster lines. Obtain ALL vital records: deeds, wills, marriages, divorces. Learn about the ancestral location, and major players, such as doctors, and where they came from. Use not only the regular schedules, but the slave ones as well. Look at those with the same surname you are researching-no matter what race. The personal property category may give clues to which landholders were slave owners. Be sure to check for a state census. Tax records and probate can help provide clues. Look at nearby states or counties to see if transactions took place close to home, but not where you thought they'd be. She had one example where probate showed up in more than one state! And years after the husband had died! Wills are available from many areas thru LDS films. Newspapers may have estate sales announcements or listings. She found one where former slaves were buying items from the estate, and named as being paid to deliver items to others. Even medical records may help your search.

The Freedman's Bureau was set up to help newly freed slaves. It is not indexed by names, but you can search for the location. Marriage declarations were published showing how long couples had been together and the children may be named there. In the Civil War Register of Claim and Compensations, slave holders were compensated for slaves who fought in the war. There are guides to private manuscripts, and Slave Trade Journals. Don't forget to read county and church histories. Go to the GSWC website, sign in under Members, and look for Secure Download, Meeting Handouts for a copy of her handout, including bibliography and suggested websites.

Class: "Black Descendants of Old Ann Arbor" was given by Jean Dixon Winborn, Ophelia Brown and Shirley Beckley. They are selling calendars containing pictures and descriptions of their ancestors. For more information call 734-971-1580. The title of the calendar is "The Village that Raised Their Children, a history of Ann Arbor's Black Community." Eventually these stories will be incorporated into a book.

There were rules that the whole community accepted: Education is Most Important! (The Dunbar Center and the Ann Arbor Community Center were part of the daily lives of many, and provided educational support.) Church is Important! (The Second Baptist and the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Churches were discussed.) Families Stick Together! Black Business is Supported by the Community!

Civil Rights demonstrations involved many who marched and picketed peacefully. Entertainment was another community venture.
